Personal Data Protection

- 1) Tottenham Hotspur Malaysia (Malaysia Spurs) may request its member to provide Personal Data of the member details and that of other individuals including, but not limited to, the member's spouse or dependents (Third Party) in the course of the Participant's dealings or transactions with Malaysia Spurs. Malaysia Spurs' Personal Data Protection Notice (Malaysia Spurs' Notice) available at the website details how Malaysia Spurs processes Personal Data.
- 2) By executing this form, the member agrees and consents to the terms and conditions of Malaysia Spurs' Notice as may be revised or amended from time to time.
- 3) In respect of Personal Data of any Third Party, the member warrants that the member has full legal authority and has complied with the Personal Data Protection Act 2010 by obtaining the relevant consent from the Third Party to furnish his or her Personal Data to Malaysia Spurs and for Malaysia Spurs to process such Personal Data under this form and Malaysia Spurs' Notice. The member further warrants and undertakes to furnish a copy of this form and Malaysia Spurs' Notice to the Third Party before providing Malaysia Spurs with that Third Party's Personal Data.
- 4) The member shall, if requested, immediately provide evidence of the Participant's compliance with sub-Clause (iii) above to Malaysia Spurs.
- 5) The member agree to fully and effectively indemnify and keep Malaysia Spurs indemnified from and against, and agree to pay on demand, any and all losses, damages, penalties, fines or levies incurred by or awarded against Malaysia Spurs as a result of any breach by the member of this Personal Data Protection clause.
- 6) For this Personal Data Protection clause, "Personal Data" and "processing" (or "process" as the context requires) shall have the same meaning ascribed to it respectively under the Personal Data Protection Act 2010.
